

GTCC Summer Institute 2017

Workshop 1705
TITLE:	Meaningful Math Notebooks for ANY Math Class
DESCRIPTION:	Join Eliza Sorte-Thomas for a fast paced Math Notebook extravaganza. Learn how to use Math notebooks for a myriad of purposes from getting to know your students to assessing their progress throughout the year. Build your own Math notebook packed full of ideas during this two-day mathematical adventure, applicable for a Kindergarten student to a Calculus student – learn the basics of managing this great educational tool – plan on modifying to fit your teaching style, grade level, and content! During the sessions participants can plan on playing games, reflecting on learning, taking notes, learning concepts, recording vocabulary, participating in 3-Act math tasks and much more. Engage yourself so you can engage your students in the math content and the math practices expected for our Montana students.
