

GTCC Summer Institute 2017

Workshop 1714
TITLE:	Tech for Teachers: Digital Dangers and Cyber Security
DESCRIPTION:	It's beyond stranger danger; it's not about cyber bullying; today's tech savvy teacher needs to know more than ever, so she can educate her students and weave technology safely into her lessons. What are the privacy settings? What is phishing? Why do I care about terms of use? Who owns my content if I use GoogleDrive? Why are my photos showing up in searches? How do Amazon and Internet Explorer know what I have shopped for in the past? Why is face-tagging bad and what can you do about it? How can I tell if I have been hacked? Is anyone spying on me? Why do so many people get scammed? What is a secure password and how do I keep from forgetting it? Should I save passwords and form information in my browser? These questions and more are the ones into which we will delve as we become student advocates and teach them what they need to know to navigate an increasingly scary internet-connected world. As we learn, we will be using a variety of technology tools, ones you can use in your classroom, safely, tomorrow: screen casting, entrance and exit strategies, memes and graphics, and reflectors.
